EXTENSION WATER MAINS POSTPONED WAITING AGREEMENT

PIPE MARKET INTERFERES AND CITY HOLDING OUT FOR CONCESSIONS.

The proposed extension of the water main system in Cameron has been postponed on account of failure to reach agreement and because of the city being unwilling to conclude a contract with the water company until further concessions are made with respect to construction of mains in the Santa Fe and compress sections.

The Water Company has asked one years time to complete the construction of the six inch mains in the residence sections on account of the condition of the pipe market and the failure of pipe concerns to deliver material at this time. Price advance has also contributed to the claims of the water company.

The city is asking for the construction of a six inch water main on the street proceeding from the F. C. Mondrik store in Santa Fe town to eliminate a dead end in that main so as to install two additional fire hydrants for fire protection. The company has not agreed to make this extension. Agreement has been reached on the main extension from Methodist church corner to the Grammar school and all other details of the contract have been agreed upon with the exception of the compress section.

The Water Company points out that it is receiving no added revenue except the fire plugs on any of the program of extension. It is belived the city will insist on this concession and also insist that the construction program on six inch main be not delayed for the time asked.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ross left Wednesday morning for Waco and from there will go to Dallas where they will make their home. Many good wishes follow this couple who have lived here over twenty-five years.

SEN. PAT HARRISON COMING TO CAMERON WITH CHAUTAUQUA

FAMOUS MISSISSIPPI SENATOR TO TAKE PLATFORM IN SUMMER OF 1923.

Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi famous Democrat and orator, will be in Cameron with the Redpath-Horner Chautauquas which begins on June 1.

The program for 1923 carries a number of big headline attractions. The following announcement is made from the headquarters:

The Premier Circuit of Redpath-Horner has announced its program for this year. Space does not permit detailed account of it all; it is too big.

Senator Pat Harrison, the dynamic and spectacular Mississippian, will be one of the headliners. Senator Harrison is a leader in his party and a famous debater and orator.

Edna Swanson Ver Haar, the famous Swedish concert contralto will also be on the program this year. Miss Ver Haar has just completed an Amercian tour following a triumphal tour of Sweden.

There are two plays this year. "Potash and Perlmutter," one of the greatest American comedies of all time, is one. The other is the sweetest stage story ever told, "The Prince Chap." Mr. Horner has produced these two great plays with exceptional casts. Redpath-Horner productions are famous. These will probably surpass anything heretofore offered.

Then there is a bright new musical comedy, "Cousin Mary." A brilliant collection of stars appear. Ada Roach, a premier favorite, Margaret Owen, star of several light operas, Stanley Deacon, light and grand opera baritone and Ruth Freeman, are numbered in the cast. The music is by Lucien Denni with more song successes to his credit than any writer in America.

Then there are Jess Pugh, humorist, Irene Stolofsky, Polish violinist, Oney Fred Sweet, great newspaper reporter of N. Y. News, Count Yamamoto of Japan—but space permits no more. The biggest seven day program ever produced in Chautauqua.

To Taylor via Davilla and Bartlett or Thorndale and Thrall is rough in places, better time can be made via Rogers.

To Houston via Hearne has a rough stretch near Benchley and also between Courtney and Hempstead, but all passable.

To Amarillo the route with the exception of a rough stretch near Kempner is reported in fine shape. This route leads thru Temple, Lampasas, Brownwood, Sweetwater and Post City.

Confirmation Of Three School Board Members Postponed By Council

Confirmation of A. N. Green, J. C. Martin and B. P. Atkinson as members of the Cameron school board, was postponed by the council at its meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Mayor J. B. White has re-appointed these members to serve for two years and submitted their names for confirmation as provided by law but the council would not take action to confirm them. H. M. Hefley, alderman, moved to confirm the appointees of the mayor but the motion failed for want of a second.

Discussion developed opposition to confirmation and it was agreed among the opposition that the appointment come up at the next regular meeting which will be held April 17. No vote was taken on the motion to postpone nor was any vote taken on rejection of the appointees.

Reference was made to the recent petition for three officers of the Civic League asking that A. N. Green and Dr. J. L. Denson be not re-appointed to the board. So far no objections have been publicly stated against J. C. Martin and B. P. Atkinson, members of the board.

Mayor White in a statement to the council urging that these members be confirmed said that due consideration had been given to the objections raised but that he considered the appointment of these members as important to the welfare of the school, taking into account their faithful and beneficial service in the past.

The appointment of school trustees was the last matter under consideration by the council when adjournment was taken.

The Mayor appointed all committees for the ensuing year with no changes in the line up. George Richards was re-appointed fire marshal; Dr. T. G. VanZant, city health officer; J. F. Brown plumbing inspector.

JAMES F. GIBSON FORMER RESIDENT OF CAMERON DIES

BODY OF FORMER CITIZEN BROUGHT FROM LOCKHART FOR BURRIAL HERE.

James Franklin Gibson, 86 years and 11 months of age, pioneer and former resident of Cameron, died at his home in Lockhart Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock March 28, 1923.

The body was brought to Cameron Sunday and was burried in Oak Hill Cemetery Sunday afternoon following services held in the First Christian church at 3:00 o'clock conducted by Rev. T. F. Weaver, pastor of the church.

James Franklin Gibson was born in Green county, Missippi, April 30, 1836. He came to Texas in 1867 and settled in Milam county in 1878. He resided in Cameron 27 years, moving to Lockhart in 1917 where he died on Friday March 28, 1923. He had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Mary Eddie Green.

He was married to Miss Mary A. McFadden in 1871 and to them three children were born, George W. and F. E. Gibson, deceased and one daughter Mrs. Mary Eddie Green. He is survived by his widow and daughter of Lockhart.

Mr. Gibson united with the Baptist church when a young man but later joined the Christian church in the early eighties. He was an active church man and Dr. W. T. Mowdy of Cameron speaks of him as being one of the best Bible students he has known in his 25 years as a teacher.

He was a Confederate veteran, enlisting in Gains Warriors, afterwards Company A, 24th Mississippi Infantry which was organized Sept. 3, 1861. The following account is contributed by Adjutant D. A. McLane of Ben McCulloch Camp Cameron:

Comrade J. F. Gibson was for more than four years a soldier in the service of the Confederacy. He was a member of Company A, 24th Mississippi Infantry under the command of Brig. General Featherston and General Stephend D. Lee and others in the service known as the Army of Tennesee. This army had been commanded first and last by the following Generals: Buckner, Albert Sidney Johnson, Braxton Bragg, Joseph E. Johnston, John A. Hood and later and last by Joseph E. Johnston again. He took a part in many of the battles fought by that army. Namely: The Seige of Vicksburg, the Battle of Iyha-Holly Springs, Shilo, Murfresborough, Chickamaugee, Mission Ridge, Resacha, New Hope Church, Peachtree Creek, Colombia, Franklin, Nashville and the last big battle of Bentonville, N. C. Shortly after this last fight the army was surrendered by Jos. E. Johnston to General Sherman at Greensborro, N. C., on the 26th of April 1865. Comrade Gibson has been a member of Camp Ben McCullough No. 29 for many long years.

D. A. McLANE, Adjt.

Those who accompanied the body from Lockhart are his wife, daughter Mrs. Mary E. Green, grandchildren Clara May Green, Wm. T. Green; Mrs. W. H. O'Banion and Mrs. A. A. Ross, and Mr. J. L. Mohle.

GOV. NEFF VETOES THE POPE BILL TO STOP TEXT BOOKS

LEGISLATURE HAS NO RIGHT TO KILL CONTRACT SAYS VETO MESSAGE.

Austin, Texas, April 3.—Governor Neff late today vetoed the Pope bill seeking to nullify awards of the state textbood commission and the bills separating the insurance and banking departments and creating new departments. Four other measures were vetoed by the governor and fourteen remained on his desk to be acted upon before midnight.

The governor's veto on the Pope bill gave an extensive discussion of his reasons for diapproving the measure. Briefly stated, the reasons follow:

Bill is in violation of the state and federal constitutions prohibiting legislation to impair contracts.

Seeks to absolve state from obligations of contract made in good faith and expressed in constitution form.

Is wrong in morals as well as law to cancel contract when neither fraud, collusion nor improper influence are alleged.

Endeavors to break contract without giving contract holders right to bring suits to establish validity of contracts.

Courts are proper forces to determine legality of contracts not the legislature.

In absence of fraud, corruption or mistake, legislature has no right in equity or good conscience to regard contract as "scrap of paper."

Bills extends contracts without considering merits of old books, the price and without requiring bond of publishing companies holding them.

Bill if it became a law would leave the state without a number of textbooks in 1925, since commission cannot under state law change more than 16 per cent of books on any year.

Unwilling to sacrifice the integrity and good name of members of textbook commission when no fraud or corruption has been shown.

The governor further stated that in vetoing the bill he was not considering the merits of the contracts let by the commission. In vetoing the insurance and banking bills, the governor said he did "not deem it for the best interests of the state at this time" for the measures to become laws at this time. He stated that if separation of the two departments is considered wise after investigation he would submit the matter to the special session.

Other bills vetoed were: providing additional manner in which notice may be given by party to a proceeding before state boards; prohibiting any school trustee or teacher from being interested in any school book depository; relating to amendments to city charters.

The governor had until midnight to act on the remaining bills before him since today ends the twenty-day period as provided by constitution in which he may act on measures.

AUTOMOBILE DEALERSHIP SPECIALIZED BUSINESS.

"The automobile dealer is so much more than a merchant," says G. C. White, "that the term automibile dealer is coming to mean a specialist in automotive transportation as well as a buyer and seller of cars and parts.

"Few merchants are required to deliver so much more than merely the item sold. Most commercial transactions end with the sale to the consumer, but the real responsibility of the automobile dealer only begins there.

"In order to fully meet this obligation to keep his customer permanently satisfied the automobile dealer must establish his business upon a very broad foundation of real service. He must specialize upon the things that develop after the sale, as well as upon the things which lead the car buyer to favorably consider him."

COL. IKE LOONEY SAYS MISQUOTED

AUSTIN NEWSPAPERS CHARGED WITH ERROR ON OIL TAX BILL.

Col. Ike Looney of Cameron, representative to the Legislature from Milam county, has asked the Herald to correct a statement contained in a clipping from the Austin American, in a review of the legislative record of Mr. Looney.

The misquotation has reference to the tax on crude oil production. The article states that Mr. Looney contended for a tax of from four or five per cent, buy instead Mr. Looney declares he opposed a high gross production tax and prefered a minimum or much lower tax than proposed. The bill died on the calendar.

T. C. STAFFORD RESIDENT OF CAMERON 42 YEARS CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY.

Thursday T. C. Stafford was as he expresses it "42 years old in Cameron" having reached Cameron from Tuskegee, Alabama, that number of years ago. In spirit and good fellowship Mr. Stafford is but 42 years old, although the sun has long since begin to drop down toward the purple shadows in the west.

Mr. Stafford reached Cameron on April 5, 1881. The Santa Fe railroad had reached the city in September of 1880. The only brick building in Cameron at that time is the Cheeves brothers building.

DEMONSTRATOR FOR WOMEN OF COUNTY URGED BY CLUB

A. & M. COLLEGE WILL CO-OPERATE IN THE WORK IN THIS COUNTY.

A county demonstrator for Women will be urged by the Cameron Commercial Club before the Commissioners Court following the meeting Friday night at which time the proposition was brought to the club by Miss Stone from the extension department of the A. & M. College.

Miss Stone came to Cameron to place this matter before the club in an effort to place a demonstrator in the county. She was accompanied to the club meeting by Mrs. George T. Graves, Mrs. W. G. Gillis and Mrs. E. A. Wallace, being introduced by Mrs. Wallace. She made an interesting talk, outlining the work of the department.

The agricultural committee composed of F. E. Jackson, chairman; T. S. Henderson, Sr., and Judd G. Davis, will go before the commissioners court in the interest of the work. Miss Stone will return to Cameron and will go before the court with the committee in the interest of the work.

It is estimated that the county can maintain the demonstrator in conjunction with the college for about $1200 per year. The county now has a demonstrator for men and also a demonstrator for the negro farmers.

If the demonstrator for women is retained, great strides toward bettering farm conditions will result. Among the things taught by the demonstrator is the canning industry on the farm, the counties where the demonstrators work having shown a record of 200 beeves canned in a single year.

The club was unanimous in its recommendation that the service of a demonstrtor be retained if possible.

C. W. LAWRENCE IS AGAIN CHOSEN TO HEAD CLUB HERE

SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING HELD AND WORK FOR FUTURE IS PLANNED.

C. W. Lawrence, Cameron business man, was re-elected president of the Cameron Commercial Club at the semi-annual meeting held Friday night.

O. M. Smith, Cameron banker, was elected Vice President to succeed R. H. McIntosh.

The meeting was well attended and from the point of interest was one of the best meetings of the year. After Mr. Lawrence had been elected, on motion a unanimous standing vote of confidence was taken and to pledge co-opreation for the coming administration.

In a speech of acceptance Mr. Lawrence pledged his best efforts to the club and asked for co-operation of the members in the forthcoming term. He declined at first to stand for renomination but the insistence of his friends prevailed and he is again in harness to lead the club to greater achievements in the coming months.

At the coming Friday night meeting the committee assignments are to be announced and a unmber of important matters are to come up for consideration. It is highly important that all newly elected directors and committee members attend and that the officers and directors get the active backing of the membership.

A secretary will be elected Friday night.

Following is copy of minutes of the meeting:

The Commercial Club held its semi-annual meeting on Friday night, March 30, with a very large attendance.

Minutes of the last meeting read and upon motion approved.

Miss Stone of A. & M. College addressed the club on the proposition of the commissioners' court of Milam county employing a home demonstration agent. Miss Stone charmed her audience by her delightful manner of presentation and thoroughly convinced her hearers of the advisability of securing a home demonstration agent for Milam county. T. S. Henderson further stressed the needs of the service of an agent. The club endorsed Miss Stone's plan, and voted to have the agricultural committee appear with her before the local commissioners' court. The members of this committee are T. S. Henderson, F. E. Jackson and Judd Davis.

Robt. McLane of the finance committee said that his committees to raise the money for the Jones Prairie road would get into harness the first of next week.

THE ISSUE IN 1924.

Republican administration organs are attempting to minimize the effect of the statement issued from Democratic National Headquarters on the announcement by Attorney General Daughterty of President Harding's candidacy for renomination by trying to make it appear that the Democratic party will have no issue except the failue of the Harding administration. Democratic leaders say that if the Old Guard leaders wish to stock their heads in the sand and play ostrich politics, that is, of course their privilege; they deceive no one but themselves.

The statement issued by Chairman Hull said that one of the outstanding issues in the 1924 campaign would be the record of omissions and commissions of the Harding administration, no matter who may be the Republican nominee. This issue alone ought to be sufficient, say Democratic leaders, to turn the Harding administration out, bag and baggage. On that issue the admininstration was rebuked and repudiated last November. But, Democratic leaders point out, that the Democratic party is a party of great principles and therefore is necessarily a party of great policies, involving a constructive and progressive program. As an evidence of their ability to formulate such a program of reconstruction following the World War which was the greatest offered by any country engaged in that war, but which was wrecked in chief part by Republican partisan opposition. Also the great consturctive program initiated and carried out from 1913 to 1917.

With reference to the issues of 1924 they point out that another Congress is to meet before those issues can be fully made up, as the record made therein will necessarily figure in the campaign as well as the records of the previous Republican Congresses.

The press comments on the Democratic analysis of Attorney General Daugherty's announcement would indicate that the analysis caused the Republican reactionary leaders, now in Florida, considerable worry. This, it is said, is due to the fact that the analysis of the reasons for announcing President Harding's candidacy at this time was true, and that the truth always hurts.

These reasons in brief were that the progressive leaders and the conservatives of sound judgment among Republicans were turning away from Mr. Harding, realizing that he could not be reelected, and were seeking a new candidate. It was with the hope of forestalling and heading off other candidates and to try to revive a fast-waning interest in Mr. Harding that the announcement was made.

Whether the Republican candidate in 1924 shall be the reactionary Mr. Harding or some one with progressive or radical views, the Democrats will be prepared to go before the country with sound constructive and progressive issues, domestic and foreign, fully confident that the people desire a return to Democratic economy, equitable taxation, the abolishment of special privilege, the establishment of peaceful and equitable relations between capital anl labor, the restoration of political honesty and the formulation of a foreign policy, enabling Americans to hold up their heads and look the world in the face, which will restore national honor, and in connection with domestic policies, restore notional prosperity, always greatest usder Democratic rule.

A DUTY OF THE LAW.

Much is being said and published just now about our growing lack of respect for law; our willingness to flout the law if we don't like it. Emphaisis is put upon a dozen different causes for this condition, ranging from "reaction from the war" to "opposition to blue laws."

As is natural, the lawyer and the jurist are in the forefront of the ranks of those who draw attention to the danger to our institutions, when Americans no longer respect the law.

The way to make law respected is to make it worthy of respect. We quote from a news dispatch:

"After serving nearly a quarter of a century on a charge of murder—Charner Tidwell, a half-breed Cherokee Indian, has been pardoned by President Harding on the recommendation of Attorney General Daugherty, and returned to the home of his boyhood."

Consider what this man suffered because the law made a mistake. Twenty-five years of a man's life is most of what is best in it. And the law took it away from him, tortured him because of his innocence, made him suffer twice what a guilty man would have suffered.

An honest mistake, of course. Lawyers and judges are only human, and must err at times.

But what will the law do for him now. The law—your law, our law, the law of the land, American law—has robbed this man, as it has robbed other men in the past—what will it do to make up? Will it offer him money? There is no provision in law for that. Will it give him honors? Certainly not. He is a man just out of jail. Will it make public apology, retraction? The law does not apologize. What it will do, and all it will do, is "pardon" the innocent.

Good Americans act as if they respected the law, because on the law rests our Government. But no American can have as high a respect for the law as it should have, as long as the law, when it commits a flagrant injustice, makes no attempt to make amends.

HOW TARIFF CAUSED RAISE IN SUGAR.

Apologists for the Republican administration are now attempting to prove that a shortage of Cuban sugar and not the Fordney-McCumber profiteers' tariff of 1.7 48 cents a pound is responsible for the present high price of this common necessity of American homes. The history of this increase in prices shows coincidences that have compelled attention and provoked comment.

On the first day of May, 1922, a couple of weeks after the Fordney-McCumber bill had been presented to the Senate with its rate (afterwards lowered) of 1.84 cents a pound on Cuban sugar and 2.3 a pound on all other foreign kinds, the retail price of sugar averaged .6 cents a pound in some fifty cities of the country. It became apparent that the Fordney-McCumber bill was goin to pass in spite of all opposition. The price of sugar rose with the hopes of those who wanted a high tariff on it.

The advance in the price of sugar from May 1 to August 1 was rapid and continuous. On August 1 the price had reached an average of 8.1 cents a pound. About this time an attack was made by Democratic Senators, including Senator Harrison (Miss.) on the sugar schedule of the bill. There were several attempts to reduce the proposed duty. The public was aroused. The price of sugar declined a small faction of a cent. On the passage of the bill (September 22,- the price began to mount and has not suffered a recession since. The retail price is now from 9 to 12 cents a pound, depending on the section of the country in which the sugar is purchased.

"The Battle Ground of Reason"

To The Herald:

My attention has been called to an article in the last Week's Herald relative to the medical practice act. The article stated that when the bill became a law it would prohibit the practice of Chiropractic in Texas.

I have not seen the bill but have been told that it plainly states that it applies to those who are practicing medicine. I don't believe there is a man or woman in the state who will make an affidavit that any chiropractor uses surgery or prescribes medicine.

There are those who contend that any method of healing; even prayer, is the practice of medicine. When President McKinley was shot, the prayers of a nation went up for his recovery. During the late world war millions of people prayed for the recovery of the wounded and sick in hospitals. Who believes that all these people practiced medicine without a license?

DEMON RUM SURVIVES BY PATRONAGE OF SOCIETY

Milksops of Infamous Social Uppercrust Tiptoe To Bootleggers Roost For Their Sparkling Wine and Beaded Booze.

In the March Ladies Home Journal the Editor calls for uncompromising enforcement of the prohibition law and points to the remarkable benefits which the law has brought to the United States even with only half a chance.

"The prohibition embroilment is shaping its course as an inevitable class issue," says the Journal.

The fashionable rich demand their rum as an inalienable class privilege.

"'To hell with the benefits to the poor there may be in prihibition! We demand our personal liverty to embellish and grace our social functions with sparkling wines and smooth beated liquors, with high-voltage cocktails to electrify our jaded nerves, with spirits of acid strength to fire our sluggish blood. We prefer boot-leggers to horse-faced cranks and reformers and will pour our treasures into their laps no matter what crime and iniquities they commit in the act of supplying our alcoholic needs. We abhor radicals and their theories of anarchy and revolution; we demand that organized society police our mansions and villas and safeguard our wealth; we look for rigid honesty and obedience to established authority and law in our servants and agents, but when it comes to our personal festivities and gala entertainments we are a law unto ourselves in the fact of this interfering and sumptuary prohibition statute.'

"So far we have not been accused of a business alliance with the bootleggers, but we are charged with bigotry and narrowness, with sniveling hypocrisy and with failure to quote at length from the crime and drunkenness statistics prepared by and for the agents of the brewers and distillers.

"In smart circles—not necessarily fashionable even in the money-made society of the day—of the great Eastern sea board cities you hear almost exclusive ccomment on the grotesque and lugubrious failure of prohibition. It benefits no one save the bootleggers. Every kind and all kinds of liquor are flowing in endless streams through illicit channels, yet the medical profession cannot squeeze out a pint or two to save the life of a patient. The laboring man is deprived of his mixed ale and garbage-distilled 'redeye,' in which he used so conveniently to drown and deaden his woes and tribulations. Little children are no longer seen tripping gaily and blithesomely to the back doors of saloons to 'fill the growler' for their tired parents or for thirsty janitors. 'Drunks' who have spent their last nickel are no longer hurled by sturdy bouncers through the swinging doors of saloons to roll bloody and sodden into welcoming gutters. There is no longer any iron in our blood or violence in our kidneys. A new race of milksops tiptoe furtively to some bootlegger's roost and then sneak home with the diluted contraband only to find that they have bought some vinegar mixed with alcohol that nauseates almost before the stopper is pulled. In what dark cirridors of gloom can one find a more dismal picture of how the common people of these United States are put upon and victimized by psalm-singing idealists?

"Before weeping too bitterly, however, read this letter which found its way into one of the New York newspapers which is 'respectably' opposed to the 'insidious' Volstead Act:

"'Sir: In your issue of December eleventh you gave us a lurid description of the illegal liquor selling in Chicago, St. Louis, Milwaukee and California. Why not try your home town? It is reported by some papers that the amount of drinking in the clubs, restaurants and hotels is something tremendous.

"'In 1910 one of your reporters came to a church in the 35th Police Precinct to find out about the lax observance of the law on Sundays. We went into ten saloons by the side door on Sunday afternoons, and he was told if he had time we could visit 150 more and find the same lawlessness. In 1910 there were 177 saloons in the 35th Precinct. By investigation they were found to have a trade of $3,250,000 a year, taken out of the pockets of the poor.

"'At a survey made December 8 and 9, 1922, sixty-eight saloons were found selling—supposedly—one-half of 1 per cent beer and wines. These saloons are owned by the breweries. Ten or fifteen years ago the small shopkeepers had hard work to make a living, many of them just kept their heads above water and a large percentage of them every year went under. Now the butcher and banker, the grocer and shoe-maker are thriving and the confectioners are riding in motor cars.

The 35th Police Precinct stretched from Seventy-ningth Street to Ninety-sixth Street and from Fifth Avenue to the East River. Prohibition has closed 190 saloons, over 60 per cent, and made the precinct so orderly that the police station is closed and the force transferred to where there is need of it.

"'What is true of this East Side district of our city is no doubht true of others where our working people live. Would it not be better to find out what New York is like than wander away to realms you know not of?

"'It is said by some of our New York papers that anyone can get a drink anywhere in the city. I doubt it, but will be willing to test it if you will send a reporter to me, not into the co-called residential districts or to so-called reputable citizens, nor into the White Light region, but into the places where the common people live.

"'They are the backbone of this great moral reform, which in time will not only make the United States dry but will drive the evil of the liquor traffic off the face of God's earth and make not only the United States God's country but bring all countries in the Kingdom of God. It makes no difference how long it takes. The patience of God, and of his saints, is proverbial.

"'James V. Chalmers.'

"The Ladies' Home Journal,
Philadelphia:

"'I read today in your December number an article by Charles A. Selden on the Enemies of Prohibition. In my opinion prohibition is getting more and better results daily. I hear the rabble say it is worse by far than it was before the adoption of the Eighteenth Amendment. I am a passenger-train conductor and have been on busy runs for a good many years, the years before September, 1917. On a certain run when it came just before a Saturday asd Sunday or a holiday or circus day or something of that sort, I would lay off and lose the time rather than make the return trip. I left every third day at six o'clock p. m., and on Saturday and Sundays there were always more drunken persons to encounter than at other times.

"'I went over to France with the A. E. F. in 1917 and come back in October, 1919, when I went to work on my old run. I have been on it ever since, and is somewhat over three years I do not recall having had more than two drunken men on my train. So if there are so many getting drunk—as some of our people would try to make us believe—they must be staying quietly put in some place ustil they get over it and not showing up on the trains I run at any rate.

"'I have heard the argument that the Eighteenth Amendment was put over while two millions of soldiers were out of the country. That is the veriest rot. Had the amendement been put to the vote of the soldiers it would have been a divided vote, I think, with much the larger per cent of them in favor of the amendment.

"'From my experience, I think it likely that there are comparatively few who get drunk now, while four years ago there were many.

"'I was at the American Legion meeting in New Orleans in October last. My son—who is also an overseas soldier—was with me. It was, I think, a big boost for the young men of America that there was evidently such an absence of the desire for anything to drink; I am confident that the bootlegger's business with the ex-soldiers in New Orleans did not make the rum runners rich.

"'I am giving you this bit of testimony, as I come in contact with from three hundred to five hundred people every day.

"The 'wet' propogandists are almost unanimous in proclaiming that a revised enactment which will legalize the sale of light wines and beers will not bring back the saloon. They admit that the saloon was a curse; they proclaim that it is gone forever. What then of the thousands of licensed saloons that are still open and doing business in New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Illinois and many other state? How many of these brewery-owned and distillery-owned dispensaries ever observed the Sunday closing law before prohibition, and how many of them now observe the Volstead Act? Only so many, located in neighborhoods of the poor, as find it profitable to sell 'legal' beer. How many of them are headquarters for bootleggers? Practically all.

"Could you trust one or any of these still brewery and distillery owned dispensaries to observe a light-wine-and-beer statute? Not a solitary one of them. The liquor interests in the United States are as vicious and as vile as they ever were. They declaim against the law-breaking bootleggers, and yet they are the bootleggers. They aided and abetted bootlegging before prohibition when they fostered blind tigers and speakeasies in no-license neighborhoods. They have always been guilty of scoring and evading the law and they always will be.

"What they are up against under prohibition is the high cost of law breaking. The bribery and corruption overhead are a crushing burden. They can keep their saloons going only in proseprous neighborhoods. The patronage of the poor is practically wiped out, and it was from the vast numbers of the poor that they derived their huge profits in the past.

"President Harding has made an appeal to the leadership element in the country to support prohibition. The prosperous millions in our population have been giving an alarming exhibition of soft morals and selfish indulgence that invites anarchy and revolution. The organized women of the country have been staunchly supporting the Eighteenth Amendment; indeed, except for the smart and fashionable minority, the women everywhere have been whole-heartedly for the amendment.

"We are undoubtedly headed for a national say-so on prohibition at the polls. It is to be hoped that we can force the issue without straddling and equivocation in the 1924 election. We are confident that there is a three-to-one sentiment for prohibition. If it should be the other way round we shall accept the verdict and prepare to begin all over again to fight for a cause that is one hundred per cent sound in what it offers morally and economically for human kind."

BOBBY WARREN COMEDIANS IN ROCKDALE LAST WEEK.

The Bobby Warren Stock Company one of the best theatrical organizations that has visited Rockdale in recent years, is playing here this week. Bobby Warren has been here before and has many friends throughout this section who are glad to come through mud and water to see him pull his comedy stuff.

The show opened Monday night in spite of the rain, playing to a small house. Tuesday night was rained out, but last night a good crowd gave the actors the glad hand throughout three fast and funny acts of a genuine old-time comedy-drama entitled " A Pair of Country Kids." Bobby declares this is really the poorest play he has in his repertoire, and if so his best one must be a headliner indeed.

The cast last night was good throughout. Emmitt Boring was supposed to be playing the lead in "Lemuel Barlow," but to the appreciative audience every part was a lead part. Bud Nairn as Old Man Hawkins is a finished character artist, entirely capable of pulling heavy stuff in regulation Booth & Barrett style. Bee Harris and Elton Pitts as Rosalie Hawkins and Truly Barlow, were both winsome in the extreme. Cleo Nairn as "Thankful Barlow" was good in a difficult part. Teddy Brewer is the hired girl pulled some real feminine comedy stuff, both in play and a specialty. Walter Jenkins as the Old Squire was "there with the goods," while Bobby Warren HIMSELF took the rummy part of "Job," the real fun of the play.

Three more nights, including tonight. If it hurts you to laugh, better stay at home. Next week the company will play Cameron, and next season Rockdale theatre goers will hope to see them here again.—Rockdale Reporter.

TICK ERADICATION IS PROVED NOT HARMFUL TO TEXAS LIVESTOCK.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 3.—Opponents of tick eradication in Texas who declared in some of their arguments that tick eradication results in cattle loss were proved wrong late Wednesday by statistics received from the Bureau of Animal Industry at Washington by Dr. Harry Grafke. The report includes all individuals report sent in by field employes and shows that an average of less than four head of cattle are lost each year for each 1,000,000 head of cattle dipped. Covering the calendar year of 1922, it is brought out that there were 72,129,958 dippings in the U. S. and that 282 head of cattle died as the result of being dipped, or as result of injuries received while passing through the dipping vats.

Carried further, it is shown that 122 head of cattle were injured, that is two to 1,000,000 head of cattle dipped.

The importance of Texas in the tick eradication campaign carried on by the Bureau of Animal Industry and the work of the Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas is indicated by the fact that during 1922 of the more than 72,000,000 dippings recorded more than 51,000,000 of these were in Texas. In exact figures 51,343,060 of these were dipped or inspected in Texas during 1922.

Of the total number of dippings in Texas, 114 head of cattle were killed by being dipped or in the dipping vats and twedve head of cattle were injured

Cattle dipped in Texas shows a curve of increase from January 1 to August 31 when the line begins to decline until December. The records for 1922 show 374,669 head of cattle dipped or inspected during January and increase each month until August when 7,013,373 head of cattle passed through Texas dipping vats. This number represents the largest dipping activity in the history of tick eradication and shows a greater number of cattle dipping in Texas than in all other States in the fever tick area.

From month to month the cattle dipping records of Texas for 1922 are as follows: January 374,669; February 378,537; March 890,856; April 3,864,108; May 6,298,964; June 6,523,344; July 6,783,503; August 7,013,372; September 6,132,743; October 6,125,963; November 4,978,516; December 2,068,586.

TEXAS EXHIBITORS TO SEND CATTLE TO MEXICO

Fort Worth, Texas, April 3.—Possibility of encouraging a market in Mexico for purebred livestock from Texas is seen in the number of purebred exhibit animals being sent from Texas to Mexico City for the International exposition to be held there during the last days of March and the early days of April. Scores of consignments have been made to the exposition by Texas cattlemen and some of the finest accredited tuberculosis free herds of Texas ars sending their prize winners there to compete in the exposition and in many cases to be sold, following its close to Mexican breeders.

The Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas has been called on for certificates for several consignments of cattle to the exposition where those cattle are from accredited herds. The following breeders have been issued certificates: Summer Farm, Hillsboro, Jerseys; Simon Brothers, Fort Worth, Jerseys; Ed. C. Lasater, Falfurrias, Jerseys; T. B. Connell, Teague, Jerseys; Peterson Bros., Justin, Shorthorns and J. W. Mann, Waco, Red Polled.

Though all cattle being shipped to the exposition must be properly tested before being permitted to cross the border, such testing is not done by the Livestock Sanitary Commission, and reports have been made only on cattle already accredited free of tuberculosis on which certificates showing the testing which formerly has been done is sufficient.

Senor Adolfo Aragondome of Mexico City is in charge of the livestock exhibits at the exposition and Texas cattle for show purposes are being consigned to him. It is expected that practically everything exhibited there will be sold following the show.

About a year ago, it is said the market in Mexico for beef cattle was exceptionally good but consignments have dwindled and it is hoped now that the showing of Texas purebred cattle will improve the market for beef cattle as well as tend to establish a market for thoroughbred stuff.

BIG MOVEMENT OF CATTLE.

Fort Worth, Texas April 3.—More than 100,000 head of Southwest Texas cattle will move from the Texas ranges into Kansas and Oklahoma for finishing on the long grass section, beginning April 10 according to Fred Rodway, supervising inspector of the Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas, who conferred with J. E. Boog-Scott, chairman at headquarters here Thursday.

The movement is not caused by a shortage of grass, according to Rodway, but the cattle have been purchased by cattlemen who intended to fatten them for market. Rains south and southwest of San Antonio have been good and the grass is coming rapidly for the summer months.

ROCKDALE THIEF TAKES 'UNDIES' OF 4 FAMILIES.

Rockdale, April 1.—A new kind of thief has made his appearance in Rockdale and a number of families were compelled to buy almost complete new outfits of underclothing Saturday.

The thief operates in a motor car and visits the backyards of homes where the family wash is done and hung out on the line to dry.

Four places were visited last Friday night after bedtime, and the lines stripped clean. One family suffered a loss of more than $100 worth of fine embroidered underwear.

Officers have been working on the case and believe they have a clew to the identity of the chief. The haul taken from the four yards entered and looted was enough to fill an ordinary touring car, it is stated.

COUNTIES TAKE UP WORK.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 3.—Plans for Jefferson, Waller, Washington, Austin and Harris counites to conduct vigorous tick eradication campaigns were outlined at a conference between county officials and J. E. Boog-Scott, chairman of the Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas Monday at Houston. Mr. Boog-Scott returned to headquarters of the commission here Wednesday.

A strong effort will be made by these counties, Mr. Boog-Scott, said to clean up during the present dipping season. A few other counties in the vicinity are lining up for the work of cleaning up this season.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. FORMER GOVERNOR THOS. M. CAMPBELL DIES IN GALVESTON

ONE OF GREATEST TEXAS GOVERNORS BURRIED IN PALESTINE.

Galveston, Texas, April 1.—Thos. Mitchell Campbell, 67 years old, twice governor of Texas, attorney, railroad executive, business organizer and a native Texan, died tonight at 8:38 o'clock at John Sealy hospital, following almost a year spent at that institution, suffering from pernicious anemia.

Mrs. Campbell and their children, with one exception, were at the bedside when the end came to the former governor. He had, however, been unconscious since 1 p. m.

Mrs. C. V. Dilley, of Palestine, was on a train due to arrive in Galveston at the exact minute her father expired. Mrs. Reynolds of Dallas, a sister of Mrs. Campbell, also was here until a few days ago, and Gus Barton, of Palestine, private secretary during his terms of office and later a law partner, also was here today.

Mr. Campbell entered Sealy hospital April 29, 1922, and had gradually grown weaker, despite all efforts to succor him. An abrupt turn for the worse was noted according to physicians, last Friday, when he began to suffer intestinal disturbances, which continued through Saturday. At 7 a. m. today, he experienced discomfort about the heart. This condition yielded to medication, but the patient grew weaker and become unconscious about 1 p. m.

A high compliment was paid the former governor by Dr. Marvin L. Graves, who attended him throughout his illness.

"His long illness has been borne with rare fortitude and courage in the face of constant suffering and steadily growing weakness," Dr. Graves said, in a formal statement.

The funeral was held at Palestine. The body was forwarded there in the morning at 9:30 o'clock. Details of the funeral arrangements had not been completed tonight.

Mr. Campbell is survived by his wife, Mrs. Fannie Irene Campbell; Mrs. D. S. Momack of Palestine, who was Miss Fannie Bruner Campbell; Thomas Mitchell Campbell, Jr., of Palestine; Mrs. C. V. Dilley of Dallas, who was Miss Sammie Belle Campbell; Mrs. R. R. Allen of Fort Riley, Kan., who was Miss Maydelle Campbell; J. N. Campbell and T. D. Campbell of Longview, half-brothers; James Campbell of Jacksonville, an uncle, and five grandchildren, Jean, Janet and Frances Dilley, Thomas Campbell Womack and Thomas Michell Campbell III.

Thomas Mitchell Campbell rose from the humble position of mill worker at Longivew to the highest office in Texas. He was born in Rusk, Cherokee county, Texas, April 22, 1856, the son of Thomas D. and Machael (Moore) Compbell, had the distinction of having been the second native Texan to occupy the governor's chair, the first having been Governor James Hogg.

His mother died when he was but 7 years old. The father married again and young Campbell grew to love his step-mother to idolization.

While working in the saw mill he turned his earnings over to her and he delighted to describe her as a woman possessing all the qualities of a real mother.

As a child he attended the common schools in Rusk and Jacksonville and the Masonic institution at Rusk. In 1873-74 he was at Trinity university, then at Tehuacana, but because of his father's financial reverses was obliged to leave the university before graduation. Thereafter, while working in various capacities, he studied law at night and was admitted to the bar in 1878. He served as master in chancery in the I. & G. N. receivership in 1889-91, as receiver in 1891-92, and upon termination of the receivership, as general manager 1892-97, when he resigned and resumed practice of law at Palestine with Selden McMeans.

In 1901 he became a candidate for governor, subject to action of the democratic party, but withdrew early in 1902. In 1906 he again entered as a candidate and was elected for two terms.

During his first term, Governor Campbell enforced many economies which he had promised, and in his second term got the tax rate down to the lowest point it has ever reached. Many notable acts were passed during his administration, including 28 laws designed to better the condition of the working man.

When he retired from the office of governor, he resumed the practice of law in Palestine with Thomas B. Greenwood, now a justice of the Texas supreme court, and A. M. Barton, formerly his secretary, as partners.

Mr. Campbell organized a number of banks in Texas and had interests in several other business enterprises, from which he amassed a comfortable fortune.

He had been in the John Sealy hospital in Galveston for more than a year, suffering from anemia and, according to his physicians, "his long illness has been borne with rare fortitude and courage in the fact of a constant suffering and steadily growing weakness."

BIG GAIN MADE BY MRS. BOWERS

REDUCED TO 90 POUNDS BY DENGUE FEVER, SHE GOES TO 130 UPON TAKING TANLAC.

Mrs. Cora E. Bowers, 3001 North Houston St., Fort Worth, is another highly esteemed Texas woman to speak in praise of the Tanlac treatment. While discussing Tanlac, which has been so beneficial to her, Mrs. Bowers said:

"Tanlac is such a grand, good medicine and has done so much for me that I am glad to make a statement to be used in letting others know about it.

"Last October, I had a spell of dengue fever, which left me in such an awful nervous, weakened condition I couldn't walk without staggering. What little I would eat made me miserable with indigestion and sleep was almost out of the question with me.

"After taking three or four bottles of Tanlac, my appetite was better than it ever had been. My troubles all left me and I went up from only ninety pounds to one hundred and thirty. In fact, Tanlac restored me to the best of health and my gratitude is unbounded."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37-million bottles sold.

WORK TO BEGIN ON BARTLETT-DAVILLA ROAD.

County Commissioner H. H. Moore of Milam county, was here yesterday and informed the Tribune that he would begin grading the Davilla road west to the Bell county line next week, and that as soon as the bonds were sold, the road would be graveled. This is good news for everyone is that section. Now, if the Bell county section were graveled it would mean much to Bartlett, and many who trade here. Let us get busy, someway, somehow, and have the stretch of road put in passable condition.—Bartlett Tribune.

FORMER THORNDALE CITIZEN PASSES AWAY AT WACO.

Mr. William Pultz, for many years a citizen of this community and section foreman on the I. & G. N. R'y here, but who for the past fifteen years has made his home in Waco, died at his home in that city last Sunday and the body was shipped to Rockdale on Wednesday where the funeral service was held and where the body was laid to rest.

The deceased was about 65 years of age and at the time of his death he was assistant road master of the S. A. & A. P. R'y with headquarters at Waco. He is a son-in-law of H. Roepke of Thorndale and his widow and six children survive him.

Mr. Pultz had not been sick and his unexpected death at this time was a shock to his intimate friends, it being said that he prepared breakfast Sunday morning before his death at 10 o'clock. The immediate cause of his death was heart trouble.—Thorndale Champion.

TEXAS LUTHERENS TO HOLD MEETING IN THORNDALE

CONVENTION IN SESSION WILL LAST THROUGHOUT MONDAY APRIL 9.

Thorndale, Texas, March 31.—If Lutherians are "Ink-stand Christians," the name which the Brooklyn Press assigned to them recently, in referring to Martin Luther's ink-stand episode, when he threw his inkstand at the devil, then the stationers in the town of Thorndale, Texas, had better lay in a double stock of these handy missiles at once, for beginning with April 5, Texas Lutheran clergymen will begin arriving in Thorndale for the Lutheran triennial conference of the Lutheran Missouri Synod Church of Texas. Ministerial delegates from every section of the state will meet the superintendents of the Lutheran church schools. One hundred and twenty-five Lutherans, who devote their entire time to church work, are expected to attend the sessions which will last throughout Monday April 9.

Rev. H. Studtman of Riesel, near Waco, president and moderator for the Texas Lutherans of the Missouri Synod, announced that this would be a meeting in which there would be more Scriptures presented than business matters. Doctrinal essays will be read and discussed, to test whether the ministers teach the Scriptures and to sound whether the Lutherans still stand united on the doctrines on sin, repentance and salvation alone through grace by faith in Christ Jesus without works. A number of these on conversion and predestination will be presented that will be discussed with special interest by the assembly. These form the basis of a union with several church bodies at the present time are not in fellowship with the Lutheran Missouri Synod Church. There is a general desire among Lutherans that the union in question should be brought about but it is also agreed upon that there shall be no fellowship where there is no unity in doctrine, and an asbsolute unity in doctrine is desired. The bodies concerned in this project are the Missouri, the Ohio, and the Iowa synods of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

While Rev. Studtman is the chief moderator of the synod in Texas, yet it has been customary to elect a special chairman for the triennial conferences. Rev. J. W. Behnken, leader of Houston Lutherans, is expected to preside at a number of the sessions. A petition to the national body, which meets in Fort Wayne, Indiana, during the month of June, will be drawn up, in which the Texas district will appeal for national support in its educational undertaking. There is such interest for the state college that it is expected the Lutherans will press on with the establishing of the school in the event the national body will sot be in a position to grant the desired financial support. Several cities in the state have made proposals as to the location of the college.

That the school in this state is an essential requisite will be brought out in a report on the missionary movement in Texas, which will be delivered by the general field secretary, Rev. W. H. Bewie of Waco. In his report he will show that new congregations have been called to live in San Antonio, Dallas, Houston and Amarillo, while other places could not be supplied with missionaries due to the death in ordained workers. Rev. K. G. Manz of Austin will lead the discussion on Christian training of the church's children. In connection with this Prof. L. Kasper of Giddings is to submit a summary on a Christian method of teaching history, geography, arithmetic, and other branches.

When the time comes for the discussion of the financial standing of the church, Rev. C. M. Beyer of Wichita Falls, will report that Dallas banks are intrusted with the funds on hand, W. C. Vogel of Dallas, general treasurer of the denomination, having all records in his possession. The Wichita Falls clergymen is the person who at the last triennial conference proposed that coup that when later applied sent the synodical contributions soaring. Statistical records and standing of publications will be reported by Rev. G. H. Biar, pastor St. Mary's church of Waco.

Lutheran leaders from other states are expected to attend with the intention to address the Texas ministers. St. Louis will send a representative who is to speak in the interest of the million dollar theological school to be erected in that city.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try this! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—Brings back its gloss and youthfulness

Common garden sage, brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, faded hair is not ...ful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant, and you appear years younger.

PROSPERITY NOW ASSURED DECLARES LOCAL AUTO MAN

G. C. WHITE CHEVROLET DEALER OUTLINES TRADE ADJUSTMENTS.

Prosperity as an accomplished fact is the substance of a business review by G. C. White of the White-House Motor Company as follows:

"Business prosperity in this country has become so obvious as to be in need of little emphasis. Every week brings fresh evidence of the upward trend in prices, movement of foods, production, and sales.

"Last week Irving Fisher's index number showed the general commodity price level to be 66 per cent above 1013, compared with 65 per cent in the week preceding, 58 per cent five weeks ago, and 38 per cent in January, 1922. Prices have jumped approximately 20 per cent in the last 12 month—the greatest rise ever recorded in the peace-time period of like duration.

"The number of freight-ton-miles in January was the heaviest in the history of the railrods. Current car loadings are the heaviest hitherto reached for this season of the year. Railroad net earnings in January were more than double what they were in January, 1922. The rate of return was 5.54 per cent on their physical valuation, the highest earned in any month with the single exception of the 5.85 per cent in March 1922. since theTransportation Act of 1920 went into effect.

"Despite persistently advancing materials costs, current building volume flourishes at a rate greatly above the corresponding period a year ago. If last year was a boom year, this year has started off at super-boom proportions. Building contracts awarded for the country as a whole up to March 1, were 32 per cent above those for the first two months of 1922.

"Output of automobiles in February was the third largest of any month on record, being only slightly surpassed by the production in June and August of last year. Demand for new cars is so strong that the leading producers are far behind in their deliveries.

"The steel industry is busier than at any time since the war, and production is limited only by labor supply. The daily rate of production in February was higher than the average during our two war years, 1917 and 1918. Unfilled orders with the U. S. Steel Corporation are now about 75 per cent above those on the books a year ago.

"Retail trade also attests growing prosperity. People are buying what they need, but there is no evidence that extravagance is again becoming popular. February department store sales as reported by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York were 10 per cent greater than for the corresponding month in 1922. Gains reported by the two leadin- mail order houses were even larger ,and showed an average increase of 47 per cent over a year ago. Sales of the two leading 5 and 10 cent stores averaged about 22 per cent greater than a year ago.

It is becoming increasingly clear that good business is in sight at least for the rest of this year and that merchants are justified in making intensive selling and advertising plans in order to exploit the rising tide of prosperity.

But prosperity has returned not only to the United States. What has not been so generally realized is that this betterment has become a world-wide condition.

While pig iron production in this country increased 61 per cent in 1922 over 1921, the increase in England was 86 per cent, and in France 44 per cent. While bitumious production here fell off 2 per cent in 1922 from 1921 output in England increased by 51 per cent and in France 11 per cent. While the tonage of shipping clearing our ports in 1922 increased only 3 per cent in 1922 over 1921 the increase in England was 63 per cent, and in France 22 per cent. These facts tend to explain why both our exports and imports have been working unward in recent months.

Although the volume of business now being transacted in this country has reached unprecedented proportions, the latest report of the twelve Federal Reserve banks shows a decrease of 94 million dollars in earnings assets, compared with a year ago. The most recent available consolidated statement of 800 important member banks of the Federal Reserve System shows an increase for the same period of only 39 million dollars in loans and discounts—most of which has served to finance the expanision in trade and rising prices in the security markets.

In other words, a year of tremendous growth in business activity and in the security markets has not materially affected the credit resources of the country. They still remain substantially unimpaired. From these facts only one conclusion is deducible, and it is this: That the recovery which has occurred to date has been sound, healthy and natural, correcting the previous period of depression which went farther than fundamental conditions warranted.

This means that current buying is of the best character. A large part of it is in the building of long-term goods which increases the wealth of the nation. It also means that the recovery should be sustained, barring a too rapid rise in the price level, for some time yet to come.

We are, nevertheless, laying the foundation for a possible period of inflation. Whether we do or not will depend upon Federal Reserve Board policy. The Federal Reserve banks of New York and Goston raised their rediscount rates a month ago from 4 per cent to 4½ per cent. This rise is small, in view of the fact that the rediscount rate is still lower than open market rates for commercial paper, which are about 4 3-4 per cent to 5 per cent, and are tending higher.

Federal Reserve Board policy will constitute perhaps the most important single factor in the general business situation. If the Board should advance the rediscount rates too swiftly, business progress would be held in check if not endangered. If the opposite policy should be pursued, then the rise in prices and in business volume might easily be too rapid for soundness.

The bull market in stocks has not yet terminated, but we are probably in the last stages of the major advance. The wild orgy of speculative enthusiasm which usually witnesses the last few weeks of a bull swing has not yet arrived. For the time being, no more than technical reactions can be expected, since domestic trade is still expanding, and credit conditions are still favorable. We believe, however, that the bull market will culminate this year, but probably not till Fall.

The trend in the bond market is downward. This tendency must continue in response to the slow hardening of interest rates.

NEGRO AGED 110 YEARS PASSES AWAY WAS AN EX-SLAVE.

The following account of the life and death of Rev. Chas. Washingtos, an ex-slave, faithful servant and highly respected minister of the gospel, who died at Giddings is just recently contributed by one who knew him quite well during all the above mentioned phazes of life amid the changing conditions of living through which he went and during all of which time he was faithful to the trust and obligations resting upon him. For such a one, white or black, the Champion has great and abiding respect.

Rev. Chas. Washington was the father of that honest, respectful and respected soul in the body and person of Louis Washington, janitor for the past 20 years at the Thorndale Mercontile Company, who, whether he knows it or not, has many friesds among the white people of Thorndale and this section. The article mentioned follows:

Giddings, Texas, March 13, 1923—Rev. Chas. Washington departed this life on the above date. He was born in Memphis, Tenn., in the year 1813, and lived through slavery, his mother, however, having died when he was quite small. He was very obedient and was recommended as a good servant by all who knew him.

He raised a large family. He was ordained to preach in 1847 by Rev. Fisher and Rev. Henick, both white ministers, and he continued in the ministry as long as he was physically able, preaching his last sermon in July 1922.

He helped to organize five different associations in Texas after coming to this state, having a record of Seventy-two years active ministry and lived to be 110 years of age, being instrumental in bringing many souls into harmony with Christ.

—One Who Knew Him.

COST OF LIVING 11 PER CENT HIGHER.

It cost 11 per cent more to live in February, 1923 than in the same month a year ago, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistic of the Department of Labor. Food, drugs and medicines, and chemicals, and furnishings for the home showed considerable gains and clothes and clothing increased 14 1-4 per cent. Fuel and lighting were 11 per cent higher in February this year than in Feb. 1922.

Metals and metal products were 26 1-4 per cent, and building materials 23 per cent above the levels they attained in February 1922. Those are commodities on which the Fordney-McCumber profiteers tariff law imposed rather heavy duties.

Farmers have to buy clothes and clothing, which are up 14 1-2 per cent: tools, wire, hardware, implements and vehicles, which reflect some 26 1-4 per cent of the new tariff: drugs, chemicals paints and oils, which have risen all the way from 5 to 20 per cent and lumber, fence posts, shingles and furniture, which have jumped 23 per cent.

While the farmer is paying these large increases for what he consumes; that is, for commodities which take about two-thirds of his outlay for his family and his farm, the products which he has for sale have increased in price only about 8 per cent.

The institute will continue through Friday night. The total number enrolled in this institute last year was 125. This year the union hopes to enroll 150. At the regular meeting Sunday evening the Union had 70 in attendance.

Dinner will be served each evening for those who attend this institute. The course in this institute will include every phase of the B. Y. P. U. Work and the church hopes to develop a large number of leaders among the young people of the church.

Able leaders engaged in the Union work will be with the church during the institute and this is one of the best opportunities in recent years for the church to profit by the teaching of courses in this work.

PREACHING SUBJECT SUNDAY.

At the eleven o'clock hour Sunday Rev. R. C. White, pastor of the church will preach from the subject: "Bringing Children to Christ and not to the Font." Sunday evening he will preach from this subject: "What Does the Genealogy of Christ Teach to Us." At the services Sunday unusually large crowds heard Rev. White in two splendid sermons.

LAYMEN'S MEETING

The Baptist Laymen will hold their next regular meeting with entertainment as soon as the committee with the matter in charge has reported on plans. All arrangements had been made for this meeting early in March but the illness of the pastor caused postponement of the meeting.

BIBLE CLASS.

The men's Bible class at the church Sunday was attended by about 35 men who were instructed by H. M. Roark in the absence of the regular teacher, O. L. Kidd. The class President J. H. DuBois expressed the gratitude of the class for the fine talk made by Mr. Roark in discussing the lesson.

MEXICAN GIRLS FROM BAYLOR AT CHURCH.

Sunday morning at the close of the Sunday school hour Misses Guadalupe, Maxima and Obelia Garay, Mexican students at Baylor College, Belton, were presented and after an interesting talk by the former, they sang a song.

Miss Guadalupe Garay told the story of their conversion, a touching narative of their former life in the City of Mexico beautiful capital of the republic. She said they had never heard of Jesus in that land of limited Christian opportunities but were converted when the family came to America about twelve years ago. In their Mexican home they were rich but she declared their riches did not compare with the feeling of joy they now experience by reason of their salvation and Christian education.

They entered Baylor College to become educated and will go back to their native land as missionaries to tell their people the story of Christ.

The sisters came to Cameron to be with the Missionary F. A. Hernandez in work at Branchville and in Cameron for a few days.

BUSINESS MEETING.

The regular quarterly business meeting of the church was held Wednesday night at which time reports were had on the various activities of the church and plans were made for the coming quarter.

COMMERCIAL CLUB REVIVAL.

There is considerable interest being manifested in the effort to put new life into the Thorndale Commercial Club. A mass meeting is contemplated to nominate candidates for directors for the club and an election will be held later to select eleven directors to take active charge of the club's activities during the ensuing year. The fact that the club has not held regular meeting does not mean that it is dead. It has only been sleeping and resting up for a very active year just ahead, during which time much good work can be accomplished for betterments in Thorndale and contiguous territory. It will take co-operation to accomplish much and this is earnestly solicited by every man laying claim to any interest in the Welfare of Thorndale. The time and place of the meeting will be announced next week.—Thorndale Champion.

PURCHASING POWER OF FARM DOLLAR.

American farmers have prospered more under Democratic than under Republican administrations, it was shown by Representative Ewin L. Davis (Dem. Tenn.) in a speech which appears in the latest issue of the Congressional Record. The statistics which demonstrate the truth of Mr. Davis' statement were compiled by the Joint Commission of Agricultural Inquiry appointed by the last Republican Congress. The data include a table giving the purchasing power of the farmer's dollar from 1890 to 1922.

The figures represent the average purchasing power of all farm products measured in terms of all commodities, taking as a basis 100 per cent in 1913, the year before the beginning of the World War.

"It is gratifying to me that the purchasing power of the farm dollar was greater under the last Democratic administration than it had been under the preceding Republican administrations, and very much greater than it has bee nduring the present Republican administration," said Representative Davis.

"The average purchasing power of the farm dollar under the eight years of the Wilson administrations was 104 per cent, whereas it was only 94 3-8 per cent during the eight preceding years under a Republican administration. The purchasing power of the farm dollar during the two years of the present Republican adminstation has been only 86.5 per cent."

Expressed in terms of all other commodities, excluding agricultural products, which the farmer does not buy to the same extent that he buys other commodities, nor in the same volume in which other groups purchase the products of the land, the average purchasing power of all farm products was only 67 per cent in 1921 and 1922, Representative Davis showed. This represented the lowest purchasing value the farm dollar has had in the history of the United States.

"As evidence that the condition of the farmer in this respect is not improving—at least not to any appreciable extent—I beg to sall attention to the fact that the average purchasing power of the farm dollar in terms of all commodities, exclusive of farm products, was 68 per cent on January 1, 1923," said Mr. Davis.

"This slight increase over the previous two years' average is easily traceable to the fact that there is always a slight advance in farm products during winter months. These ndisputable official figures should certainly serve to demonstrate the fact the farmers fare better under a Democratic administration than they do under a Republican administration."

The average net receipts were $1,100 a farm, or $220 for each farm resident in 1919, the last full fiscal year of the second Wilson administration. This was the highest net return ever recorded. Net receipts in 1921 were $107 a farm, or $21 a farm resident. In 1922 the average net receiptt were $252 a farm, or about $50 a farm resident.

If there is any improvement in the financial and industrial conditions of the country it has been confined to a few industries which are profiting at the expense of the farmer, Mr. Davis declared.

"It is poor comfort to the farmer to tell him that his neighbors are prospering in producing commodities of which his money will purchase only 67 per cent as much as it would prior to the war," he said.

Help Kidneys By Drinking More Water

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Help Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and bladder irritations often result from acidity, says a noted authority. The kidneys help filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it may remain to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread; the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is often one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Begin drinking lots of soft water, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast. Continue this for two or three days. This will help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which then act normal again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by acid irritation. Jad Salts causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which may quickly relieve your bladder irritation. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

OPPORTUNITY.

They do me wrong who say I come no more
When once I knock and fail to find you in;
For every day I stand outside your door.
And bid you wake and rise to fight and win.
Wail not for precious chances passed away,
Weep not for the golden age on the wane;
Each night I burn the records of the day;
At sunrise every soul is born again.
Laugh like a boy at splendors that have sped;
To vanish joys be blind and deaf and dumb.
My judgments seal the dead past with its dead,
But never bind a moment yet to come.
Who deep in mire, wring not your hands and weep;
I lend my aid to those who say, "I can."
No shamefaced outcast ever sank so deep.
But he might rise and be again a man.

—WALTER MALONE.
